

Meet the Committee

Greg Jonas Treasurer and Chair of the John Dolphin Fellowship Scheme

Greg studied Medicinal Chemistry at University College London and obtained his Ph.D. from the University of London. Since 1990 he has worked as a separation scientist in both a multi-national pharmaceutical company and a medium-sized CRO.

Greg has particular interests in method development and method validation in analytical chromatography and the use of HPLC and SFC as a preparative technique.

He has both organised and co-organised several meetings since joining the committee in 2003.
